

What does it mean to be a Hero?

Year 10 Class SE2 students have built Haiku poems to answer that question.

We're only human

We, humans, are not heroes

But we could all be!

(Diogo Pinto; Diogo Galvão; Ivo Fernandes)

No superpowers

You only need the power to make life better.

(Mariana Silva; Pedro Diniz; Francisco Maurício)

Heroes are stunning.

They try the impossible

just to help people

(Laura Sinfrósio; Lina Ciobanu)

Are we all heroes?

Do we all have the courage?

Yes, we're all heroes.

(Margarida Barbio; Margarida Esteves)

What is a hero?

How can we all be heroes?

Oh, just be your best!

(Maria Inês Rocha; Natacha Pulga)

Legends never die.

If you want to become one,

be a hero first.

(Rodrigo Felgueiras; Rodrigo Amaro; Tomás Encarnação)

Heroes never die

They become a part of you

Alive in your heart

(Shayane Sinbo; Tatiana Araújo)

Ohh... what's a hero?

There are many false heroes

So be a good one!

(Duarte Pedroso; Gonçalo Castro; Hadi Cruz)

Who are my heroes?

My parents are my heroes

My inspiration.

(Mariana Ferreira; Matilde Rolo)

Oh! All our Heroes

are so powerful and strong our inspiration.

(Miguel Duarte; Pedro Marques; Tomás Belo)
