Her life in a Mind Map

BEBE VIO

her life before the disease

Bebe Vio is an Italian wheelchair fencer. She was born in Venice on the 4th of March 1997.

She was second of three siblings and she was raised in Mogliano Veneto.

She has always been very creative. One of her favourite hobbies as a child was painting. She was also very carefree, as she had no worries and she lived her childhood happily.

Unfortunately in late 2003, when she was 11 years old, she was affected by a severe meningitis that caused her an infection and then the amputation of both her legs from the knee, and both her arms from the forearms. This occurrence makes her very brave because she faced her disability without fear. She has been sporty all her life as well. She has always played sports and even after her disease, after more than three months, she was able to come back to sport.

HER LIFE AFTER THE DISEASE

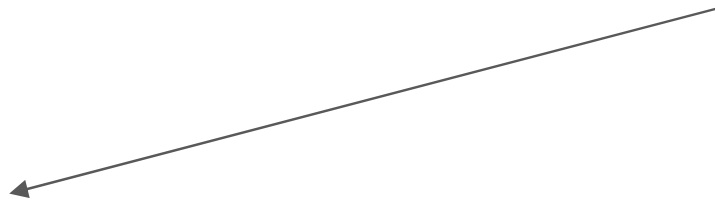

Paralympic Champion: after a series of unfortunate events, she became world champion under 17 in 2011, she keeps training hard for the future and her goal is to reach the olympics, which she obtains. She wins the gold medal at the paralympic games in Rio 2016.

Celebrity: After winning the paralympic games she becomes famous all over the world. She made a tv show about her and takes part in a lot of adverts. Bebe Vio has become an inspiration for all athletes and she is well known all over the world.

Determined: she didn't give up on her illness, she made it as her strength. She continued her sport.

Unstoppable: People judged her because of her illness, despite of that she continued her life normally, because she believes she's stronger than her disability.

TIME LINE

Bebe Vio as a hero
