

NATALIA TELLO

INTRODUCTION:
The most important festivity, the fallas.

- These are parties that go from March 15th to 19th with a tradition rooted in the city of Valencia and different populations of the Valencian Community. Officially, they begin the last Sunday of February with the act of the Cridà (in Valencian language, 'pregón', in Spanish language).

- In these dates there are so much people from Valencia and from other cities too.
- The temperatures and the climate are so good. The people is outside the most of the time and the temperatures are so hot.

The people buy a lot of firecrackers, and in the shops there is a lot of queues to buy.

The adults play with big firecrackers and the children carry small firecrackers that only explode hitting the ground and it sounds as if you gave a slap.

These are the firecrackers of the “mascletas”.

These are the 'mini firecrackers' that are given to children.
