

PADLET

In catalan class we have learned how to use the padlet app.

Firstly, the students searched information about the streets that had a philologist's name of their villages.

They then wrote their biography and relevant information about when that name was put to the street and why, which his/her previous name was, etc. in their notebooks.

In groups, they made a padlet with this information adding photos of the street.

