

TREASURE HUNT

Barcelona's most famous street offers so much more than snacks and shopping! Be greeted by street performers with talents ranging from the impressive to the weird to the extraordinary during a stroll down this popular path. Find these 8 gems at the same time you discover different sceneries of Marina by Carlos Ruiz Zafón.

1. The Canaletas Fountain and a famous inscription telling the tourists to drink this water if they want to come back to the city.

2. The different names of the sections of "Las Ramblas"

3. Hotel Continental. Where the famous writer George Orwell stayed

4. The Escriba's pastry shop. A Modernist shop.

5. Take a photo of the Boqueria market's modernist arch. You will see the real name of the market on it. Take a photo in the mitic Pinotxo bar in la Boqueria where you can eat the most delicious tapas in the market. Take a selfie in your favourite food stall.

6. The famous dragon of Marina

7. Hotel Oriente, where Christian Andersen stayed when he visited Barcelona. Find the inscription and take a photo.

8. Joan Miró's mosaic, a gift to Catalonia welcoming foreigners who arrive to Barcelona from the sea. Find Joan Miro's signature on it and take a photo.