

Turgut Waterfall

If you like nature and waterfalls Turgut Şelalesi is one of the places you must visit when you are around Marmaris. The water is so clean and the waterfall is surrounded by trees. The combination of blue and green in this waterfall is really amazing. You can also swim in the water even its pretty cold.

Many people are interested in trekking also prefer Turgut waterfall and the region around. This place is very suitable for long walks. Since there are trees around, it is a cool place and one of the best options for trekking.

