

30 Vieilles Charrues

DEPUIS 1992
14-17 JUILLET 2022

100% ASSOCIATIF ERER KOZH KARAEZ

Image of the crowd that returns every year for a new program.

The Vieilles Charrues festival, create in 1992 is one of the biggest festival in Europe. That is an associative festival of current music, annual, scheduled over four days on the third weekend of July in the town of Carhaix-Plouguer, in Finistère. The festival is often nicknamed "the Plows", especially on social networks. Singers known as Dj Snake, Bob Sinclar, MC Solar, Indochine, Véronique Sanson, The Cranberries, Diam's ...have already been invited to animate the festival.

	MALIN	DEUXIÈME CHANCE	DERNIÈRE CHANCE
4J* J / V / S / D			188€ DERNIERS BILLETS DISPONIBLES
3J* J / V / S	COMPLET
3J* V / S / D			141€ DERNIERS BILLETS DISPONIBLES
1J* JEUDI			50€ DERNIERS BILLETS DISPONIBLES
1J* VENDREDI	COMPLET
1J* SAMEDI	COMPLET
1J* DIMANCHE		47€ DERNIERS BILLETS DISPONIBLES	50€ BILLETS DISPONIBLES

* Tarifs hors frais de location

festival map image

To access the festival, the sale of tickets is available on an online ticket office around May. The prices for a festival day are around 50 euros per person.

The bracelet called "Moneiz" allows the festivalgoers of the Vieilles charrues to have access to the festival and to be able to pay.

The festival welcome about 30 000 spectators every year over 4 days.