

Musée du Louvre

LÉA . RACHEL . GARANCE

Introduction

The Louvre museum is a museum located in the 1er arrondissement of Paris, in France.

It was created in August 10, 1793.

It was built during the reign of Louis XIII (1610-1643) by the architect Jacques Lemercier.

HISTORY

The Louvre museum is a former palace of the kings of France. Which has today become the largest museum in the world, and presents nearly 10,000 years of art history that its collections display.

Liberty Leading the People

Liberty Leading the People is an oil on canvas by Eugène Delacroix produced in 1830, inspired by the Trois Glorieuses revolution.

The mona Lisa

The Mona Lisa, or Portrait of Mona Lisa, is a painting by the artist Leonardo da Vinci, made between 1503 and 1506

The Wedding at Cana

The Wedding at Cana is a painting made by the Venetian painter Paul Veronese in 1563 on the iconographic theme of the Wedding at Cana and exhibited at the Louvre Museum in Paris.

Informations

ADRESSE

Rue de Rivoli, 75001 Paris

SITE WEB

www.louvre.fr

TÉLÉPHONE

+33 (0)1 40 20 53 17