Summary of tasks/ actions:

PART ONE: brainstorming
Phase 1: discuss about the aim of inclusion (what does inclusion mean in everyday life? How difficult is the coexistence between different cultures?).
Phase 2: divide in groups.
Phase 3: search on the net for examples of body art works.
Phase 4: take inspiration from them and make a schedule of your own performance.

PART TWO: finding resources
Phase 1: search for images, music, videos which deal with inclusion in your opinion (p.e. pictures or paintings which belong to other cultures).

Phase 2: choose what you want to communicate through your performance.

Phase 3: select the materials which fit the most for your message.

PART THREE: creation

Phase 1: each group has to choose working materials as temperas, pastels, felt pens, wax pastels, gesso...

Phase 2: find a way to mix originally what you have prepared.

Phase 3: working on the same sheet of paper try to realize a work that expresses the deep meaning of inclusion.

Each group has to give its contribution to this work. Don't be afraid of being creative!
