INCLUSIVE TEACHING PRACTICES - SPECIAL NEEDS TUTORING

Marysia is a girl who is hard of hearing. She attends these classes twice a week. She practices the ability of reading because she's still got problems with it and the spatial orientation.

Michał is an autistic child. He is a very talented pupil. He attends these classes twice a week too. For example he does some graphomotor exercises.

Marcel is a boy with Asperger's syndrome. He attends these classes twice a week too. The main aims of them are: practising communication skills, motivating to learn, getting to know different learning strategies and practising Polish grammar.

The teacher practises the fairy tale therapy.

Marcel is an autistic child too. During the classes he learns how to deal with emotions, how to communicate with peers.
