Jungwon Earth Week (from March 27 to April 3rd)

soapnuts

All participants would be given a pack of soapnuts that they could use while washing the dishes. This way, they don't have to use detergents that are harmful for environment and also they don't have to use plastic container for the detergents. Soapnuts are natural detergents that are right from the soapnuts trees. You could put the nuts in the water and then use the water to wash the dishes!
