

A traditional Croatian
breakfast

This morning I had some bread with a spicy add on called
'ajvar' and some onions and to top it all of I had 'čvarci' with some salt.

čvarci= cracklings- roasted pork rind

This is my breakfast. This morning I ate 'burek sa sirom' (I really don't know how to say that in English- it is a traditional cheese pie eaten in the Balkans), and drank 'Cedevita'- it is a brand name for the powder you mix with water to get juice.
