Traditional Polish Breakfast

scrambled eggs

ham sandwich

oatmeal

omelet

sanwich with jam

The collage features five distinct images. At the top left is a plate of fluffy scrambled eggs garnished with green herbs. To its right is a vibrant, multi-colored floral pattern on a dark background. Further right is the flag of Poland, consisting of a white top half and a red bottom half. Below these are three more images: a ham sandwich with a slice of tomato and herbs on a wooden cutting board; a white bowl of oatmeal with a honey dipper and a small glass of honey; a golden-brown omelet folded in half on a white plate with a side of fresh vegetables; and two slices of bread with a thick spread of red jam.

1. Scrambled eggs

It's a fry messy eggs. We can eat it with many accessories, for example with tomatoes, toasts, chives.

4.Porridge

We can add many many fillings. Most we add fruits.

2. Curd

We can eat it with chives or radish. Also we can eat it with bread.

3.Frankfurter

You can eat this with bread or sauce.
