

What words do you associate to the internet and social networking sites?

What could you do to keep your password safe?

choose effective combinations that only I can recognize

I have different password for each sites

I wouldn't tell it to anyone, I would make it quite complicated and I would never save it on the computer don't tell anyone about it,change it regularly and don't choose one to easy

i could learn it and if ity's too complicated, i could keep it in a safe place (for exemple, in my bedroom)

change it often and don't use the same for other sites

Don't share your passwords with anyone

I change my password periodically. I make my password in order to it's difficult.

I must do a complicated one, with numbers, special characters..

What could you do to keep your password safe?

We can add numbers, special characters and private information and never write it on Internet.

I could write a password with 12 characters, use the first letters of a sentence and use numbers and signs reinforce your password and your character like wrote a numbers and capital letters , numbers

i put capital letter and small letter and numbers make small phrases like i love video games and take the initials (ilvg) then add some numbers between the letters for example the date of birth of some family member or of your pet. in this case (i3l3v0g6) and finally add some characters ($ i3l3v0g6)

What should you do if you met a cyberbully on a social networking site?

I think I would reason that and help him stop doing this thing

I should block it and tell someone;

I would report him immediately to be able to block his account

Talk of that to an adults

i should signal him, and block him.

talk to someone who can help you

I'd denounce it

I should call the police

I will try to trap him do get his identity and after I will call the police

What should you do if you met a cyberbully on a social networking site?

I would tell him what he does is so sad and ugly.

I should report it or denounce him

you should block your cyberbully and denounce your cyberbully

i would talk to my parents and stop a cyberbully

I block it by reporting it or denouncing it
