

TOLERANCE & INTOLERANCE

BY: BILAL, MOHAMED T, ÖZGÜR, FLORA & MAYA

CONTENT

1. What does tolerance mean?
2. What does intolerance mean?
3. Where do we have difficulties with (in)tolerance?
4. Why do we need tolerance?
5. How can we be tolerant?
6. Sources

1. WHAT DOES TOLERANCE MEAN?

- Origen: from the latin word „tolerare“
 - This means: to endure
 - Being tolerant means: to accept everyone the way they are
 - People are different in many ways: in their appearance, opinions, origen ...
 - Nevertheless, you need to treat everyone equally
 - Conclusion: tolerance is important so that people can live peacefully together
-

2. WHAT DOES INTOLERANCE MEAN?

- It's the opposite of tolerance.
 - Some people are afraid of other people, their appearance or their opinions just because they are looking different or are strangers.
 - Intolerant people are reacting hostile.
 - Intolerance is caused by prejudices: although they don't know (very good) the other person they believe they know how the other person is – just because the person is a stranger or believe in other things.
-

3. WHERE DO WE HAVE DIFFICULTIES WITH (IN)TOLERANCE?

- origen
 - sexuality
 - appearance
 - strangers
-

4. WHY DO WE NEED TOLERANCE?

- For peace
 - For equality
 - For a good life
 - For respect
 - For love
-

5. HOW CAN WE BE TOLERANT?

- Respect for other people
 - Equality
 - Defending people who're suffering intolerance
 - Politeness
 - Love
-

PICTURES ABOUT TOLERANCE

6. SOURCES

1. BILD.de
2. YOUTUBE
3. WIKIPEDIA
4. WDR

The End