

A Fairytale City, A Fairytale Country

Cyprus is a fairytale country where I spent the most beautiful week of my life.

This week we had the opportunity not only to see the surroundings but also to meet some wonderful people who welcomed us with open arms.

I really liked the way we managed to get along and make some close friends.

We visited a lot of places and I couldn't say that I have a favorite one, the whole city of Paphos is a fairytale.
