

Myths

Pablo, Pilar and Javier

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

THE HESPÉRIDES GARDEN

The Hespérides means the get light daughters or that's the meaning in grece.
In the Herpecides garden,there was a three that gave you some gold apples and that could give the power to be immortal

There, a group of four daughther that were from Atlas and they have lived in the occidental islands.

The canariann islands have something related to It because we are located in that area and that's why we belive in this myth.

San Borondón

Is the most popular legend of the Canary Islands. The name of the Island is due to a monk called Saint Brendan from Ireland.

The legend talks about a very big animal (like a whale or a enormous turtle) that has an island in his back.

The history of this island is from the XV century. The legend is very old but nobody knows where it's yet.

Photos

A picture of San Borondón

A game for kids

A map

Gara y Jonay

The story of Gara and Jonay is about two lovers who end up committing suicide by jumping from the top of a mountain that is given the name of Garajonay for this story.

The end

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

