

READING A TEXT

- You need silence to concentrate
- All the information counts: words, graphs, pictures photographs. You must read everything.
- Read it more than once
- Go back once and again
- Underline important ideas
- When you don't understand a word try by:
  - Context
  - Similarities with other languages
  - Using a dictionary
  - Asking somebody
- When you read you must be able to get some ideas from the text.
