

Augmented reality

You look through the glasses.
Information and pictures are displayed directly in your field of view.
This technique does already exist in 2018 and it will work much better in 2030. How will that change our lives?

Think of:

- Computer games in the city
- school
- job
- Information for tourists
-

be creative! Imagine the super app of the year 2030