DANCING HOUSE AND CHURCH OF CYRIL AND METODEJ

Dancing House

 This building looks amazing from outside. Inside it looks modern but it doesn't seem finished. I'd like to go there because I'm very curious!

 I'm very curious to see this building because in Spain we don't have this type of place. And it is very different to the place in Spain.

 This building looks very modern and very nice. I would really like to see it. In Germany I never saw a house like this so I would like to visit this place.

 I am very excited to see the building. It looks very modern and nice. The outside looks really interesting and I would like to see it in person.

Church of Cyril and Metoděj

 This building looks a little boring. It isn't very special. It just seems like a normal church. I don't really have to go there.

 This church is very beautiful and I like because the structure is similar to some church in Spain.

 This church looks nice but I think it's a bit like all the other churches. But I would like to see this church.

 This church looks very pretty, however it looks just like a lot of other churches.

Dancing House

 The dancing house looks nicer in real than in virtual. Unfortunately, I couldn't see the house inside. The outside looked more "dancing" than I saw on the virtual pictures.

 The dancing house was a lot more impressive in real life than it was in the pictures and online. In real life you could see the shape of the windows better.

 The dancing house, I like too much this building because you don't see this type of building in any place only in Prague, near to the river. It's bigger and I love it.

 When I saw the picture I didn't understand why the name of the house is 'Dancing House' but now I saw it and recognized that it looks like a man and a woman who are dancing. It looks very modern and it's much bigger than I thought.

Church of Cyril and Metoděj

 The church was less boring than I thought. There was an interesting story about the church in 1918. The outside of the church looks very boring and normal, but inside it's very different from other places.

 I enjoyed the church a lot more than I thought I would, it wasn't as I thought it would be. It was a lot more interesting in real life than it was online.

 I liked it but not too much, because it had nothing special but if you taught part of the history of Prague, and some thing very interesting.

 The story of the church is very interesting and I would say a bit sad. The church looks very different to the church which I know so I was interested in this place. From outside she looks like all the others but inside there are a lot of pictures, colors and gold.
