HOPPY'S BUSY DAY

Hoppy took one look at the calendar and hopped out of bed. "Oh, my!" he cried. "I almost overslept. It's only one more day until Easter."

Hoppy and his friend Mike Mouse got to work. While the eggs boiled, they picked out colors. Mike wanted orange, purple, and red. "I want green and yellow," said Hoppy. "and stripes."

They colored patterns on the eggs with wax crayons and then put them into the colored dye. They were beautiful.

"The children will love these!" said Hoppy.

Mike and Hoppy knew where all the children lived. They got up early Easter morning and hid all the eggs while the children slept. Hoppy got very excited thinking about how much fun the children would have looking for the eggs.

He was very tired when he got back home. He went to bed for a long nap. "Just don't sleep so long this time," said Mike.

Where DO EASTER EGGS COME FROM?

by Mark Cox

I asked my friend, Eddy about Easter eggs.
I wanted to know.
"Do they come from Easter Island?"
"Or from under the snow?"

I asked some more questions.
"Do they come from a store?"

Maybe, there's one special chicken.

Or maybe there's more.

Here's another idea.
A machine might make a lot.

They might come from the ground.
Then again, they may not.

From the ground or the snow? We may never know.
But, don't worry.

On Easter morning they'll be ready.

I'll be Easter egg hunting.
And, so will my friend, Eddy.

Happy Easter!
