

BRETON vs EUSKARA

Newspaper articles about different aspects of Basque / Breton language.

	Proficient 7 Points	Emerging 4 Points	Beginning 0 Points
LANGUAGE	Correct vocabulary & grammar. It is easy to follow and understand. They include grammar or vocabulary included in the syllabus. Information is well structured; introduction, body & conclusion.	Some parts are difficult to understand. Poor vocabulary and simple grammar. No connectors at all. Weak structured; no introduction and/or conclusion, repetitions, lack of information, ...	Difficult to understand. Basic grammar mistakes. Chaotic structure without a logical order. No connectors or extreme adjectives.
TECHNOLOGY	Good use of resources. Images well chosen to support text. Good balance text-images. Appropriate headings & subheadings.	No images or not related to text. Heading does not correspond to text. Basic layout.	Word document, no images. No application used.
COHERENCE	Introduction, body and conclusion. Research well done. Data is conclusive to support their arguments.	Poor data. Little research done or no data to support their arguments. They speak from their own experience.	No research at all. Too simple. Repetitive. No data to support arguments.

This rubric was created with Quick Rubric and can be found at - <http://www.quickrubric.com/r#/qr/amaya/breton-vs-euskara>