Inca Market

WHAT IS INCA MARKET ALL ABOUT?

On the Island of Mallorca there are many markets, one of the most important being the Thursday market in Inca.

The market spreads through the streets of almost the entire city of Inca, from the train station to the Plaza Mallorca. It is one of the most well known and popular markets of the week, where you can find everything from basic food products to the most trendy items of the season. All of this wrapped up in a harmonious environment and above all, very family friendly.

Shopping at this type of market has many advantages, because you will always find home produced quality goods and artisan products of Mallorca.

The market currently has 246 stalls of clothes, shoes or accessories, among other things and 127 stalls of plants and agricultural products. Despite this large number of stalls, there is still a waiting list of more than 1,000 vendors hoping to trade in Inca.

Inca market offers a wide variety of products for sale such as: all kinds of fabrics and clothing, a variety of accessories and footwear, handicrafts (household items, household tools and small hand tools), large variety of flowers and plants for the nature lovers, nuts and candies for the sweet tooth, fresh fruits and vegetables and organic produce, sausages, cheeses and wines for an exquisite palate. All this and much more is why you should not miss the opportunity to visit and explore the market taking every inch of it in.

WHERE WILL WE BE LOCATED?

Apart from the usual places, the Thursday market may also, on occasion, accommodate school children who want to show or sell their creations.

WHAT WE HAVE TO DO?

A registration form is a list of fields where a user must input data and submit to a company or individual.

In this case, the city hall uses registration forms so that customers may sign up for subscriptions, services, or other programs or plans. So we have to complete a registration form to request a stand at the marketplace..

WHAT THE STUDENTS HAVE TO DO?

They will have to decide and prepare what they want to show and how they want to show it, so that they are able to communicate their project and be attractive to visitors.

That's all Folks!
