

• The first of December is the National Day of Romania and has a special significance in our society.

• Union of the 1st of December 1918 represents the National Day of Romania, celebrated annually as national day in 1990.

• The Feast commemorating the Great National Assembly from Alba Iulia and union of the Provinces Basarabia, Transylvania, Bucovina, Banat, Gissana, Maramures and Satormar with the Kingdom of Romania.

• In addition to the officials, in Alba Iulia, came to the Romanians everywhere, from over the Carpathian Mountains, by train, with carts, riding on the floor, dressed in a holiday with the national flag with the indicator panels of the communes or officials of dumped in the weighing and full of joy. Over a hundred thousand people gathered in this day to be in the act the greatest of the history of the Romanians.

