

Robert Lewandowski

the professional footballer who plays as a striker for German club Bayern Munich, and the captain of the Polish national team.

Lewandowski started his career at Varsovia, where as a teen he played for seven years.

2010-11 Season

He joined Bundesliga club Borussia Dortmund in June 2010, signing a four-year contract with the German club for a fee reported to be worth around €4.5 million.

2011-12 Season

Lewandowski finished the year as the third top goal scorer with 22 goals, none from the penalty spot, and six assists.

In the final game of the season for Dortmund, he scored a hat-trick in the DFB-Pokal Final, a 5–2 win over Bayern Munich. Lewandowski finished as the DFB-Pokal's top goalscorer.

2012-13 Season

On 24 April 2013, Lewandowski became the first player to score four goals in a Champions League semi-final as Borussia Dortmund defeated Spanish champions Real Madrid 4–1.

2013–14 season

Lewandowski ended the 2013–14 season as the top goalscorer in the Bundesliga with 20 goals.

2014–15 season

Lewandowski signed the contract with Bayern Munich.

2015-16 Season

On 22 September 2015, Lewandowski set a Bundesliga record by coming on as a substitute with Bayern trailing 0–1 to Wolfsburg and scoring five goals in 8 minutes and 59 seconds, the fastest by any player in Bundesliga history, to take a 5–1 lead. He also set Bundesliga records for the fastest hat-trick (three goals in four minutes), and most goals scored by a substitute (five). Lewandowski's five goals in nine minutes was also the fastest in any major European football league. He was awarded four certificates by Guinness World Records for this feat.
