

The children listened to the story: “ The smartest giant in town”. The hero of the book is George, who decides to buy some new clothes. Walking back from the shop though, he gives away his clothes and accessories to the animals he meets in order to help them.

“Cheer up!” said George, and he took off his new white shirt.
“It kept coming untucked anyway,” he said, as he tied it to the mast of the goat’s boat. It made a magnificent sail.
“Thank you!” said the goat.

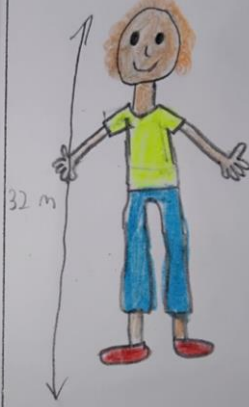

George strode on, singing to himself,

“My tie is a scarf for a cold giraffe, My shirt’s on a boat as a sail for a goat, But look me up and down – I’m the smartest giant in town!”

Children made their own booklets with George the giant helping another animal.

George goes
on a walk
with his long body

George asks
the puppy
-What's the matter?

I lost my mom!

George helps
the puppy
with his long hands

George goes
on a walk
with his hat

George asks
pig
-What's the matter?

I can't get out of the mud

George helps
pig
with his Hand

George goes
on a walk
with his

red hat

George asks

the white dove

-What's the
matter?

George helps

the white dove

with his

red hat

George goes
on a walk
with his

small dog

George asks

puppy

-What's the matter?

George helps

puppy

with his

dog

George goes
on a walk
with his

parrot

George asks

kitten

-What's the matter?

My ball is on the tree

George helps

kitten

with his hands

George goes
on a walk
with his

car

George asks

a child

-What's the
matter?

I can't take the ball from the tree.

George helps

a child

with his

hands

George goes
on a walk
with his

mask

George asks

rabbit

-What's the matter?

George helps

the rabbit

with his

mask

George goes
on a walk
with his

gloves

George asks

pony

-What's the
matter?

George helps

pony

with his

gloves

George goes
on a walk
with his
parrot

George asks
the puppy
-What's the
matter?

George helps
the puppy
with his hands

George goes
on a walk
with his
mask

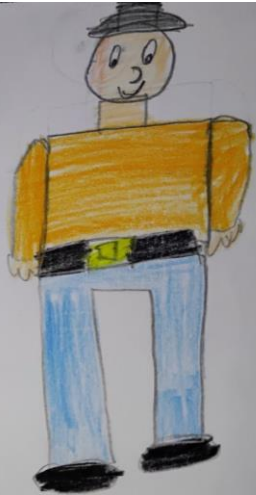

George asks
flamingo
-What's the matter?

George helps
flamingo
with his
mask

George goes
on a walk
with his Hat

George asks
bird
-What's the
matter?

George helps
bird
with his hands

George goes
on a walk
with his
mask

George asks
the rabbit
-What's the
matter?

George helps
the rabbit
with his mask

