

Perfect Holidays

Video conference or chat between students from two different partner schools

Dear students in love with Erasmus + project Discovering Europe,

YAY!

You are allowed to day-dream about the perfect holidays that you would like to spend in any of these countries (or anywhere else in the world!)

Since day-dreaming by yourself is no fun, you will be paired with another student (from another European country involved in our project). This means you will use as much English as possible in a little interview (asking and answering questions like the following):

Final notes for the students:

a. You can use the questions and answers above but you are also free to add any other ideas (about the location, the weather, the food etc.)

Ready, steady, begin day-dreaming!
