

Perpetual motion machine

On this day the children of all classes should run with a ball from the very bottom to the very top through the staircase and then throw it down. The next child downstairs had to catch the ball and run up the stairs again. And so on.... ;-)

