

Break exercises

At our school we make every effort to provide sufficient exercise during the breaks in order to promote the movement of the children. Even if we cannot use the schoolyard on rainy days, there are enough utensils to encourage active play in the school building.

