

Yes, you are right

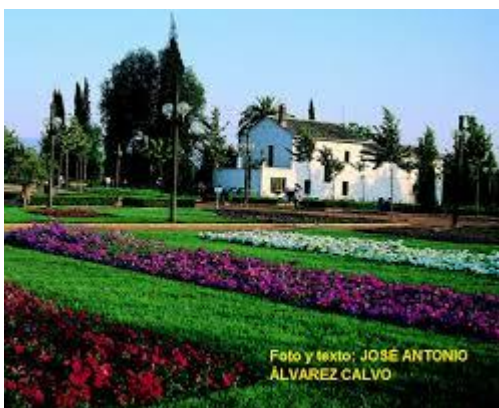

Well done!

Lorca's house in Fuentevaqueros (Granada)

Lorca's work

Parque García Lorca

We are looking for an Andalusian writer

Is it a man? Is it a woman? ...

Those who enjoy literature will soon
guess

For a while he was a New Yorker.

From a small town he travelled around.

He didn't live long but lived intense,

And loved art, music and the world immense.

His city, at the foot of the snowy mountain

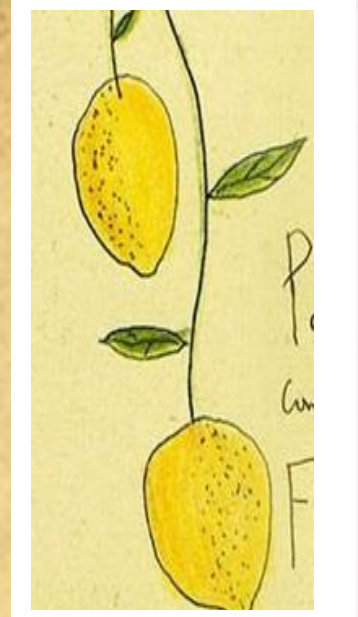

Under the gypsy moon.

His colour, green in love.

His passion, verse and drama,

In Huerta San Vicente enlarged.

His art, universal.

By Montse Garrido

Literature teacher at IES Vega de Atarfe