Schwetzingen

Every one was so friendly!

When you are at the free time and you get to know the other partners.

Being all together in workgroups to make new friends

meet new people

That we experience so many things together but also hat time to work in smal groups
After the program

the castles and gardens, to meet other people

My host

schwerzingen

That we were all time together

We met new people and different cultures

The destinations and the guided tours were well chosen

The host of the exchange' s family

Findling out new things and places

I found especially good that we could talk in a language everyone is possible to speak and understand.

when we visited Heidelberg

The freetime with them so we did many different things together

The school sistem

The castles + gardens , all the people

That we had the chance to explore the attractions also on our own.

meeting new people

How we bacame friends with each other.

Free time

I like it a lot when we visited Heidelberg

Family and friends

That we are together all the time

The friendly students from all the countries

Meeting new people

the castles and gardens , to meet other people

Visiting Heidelberg and castles

the family and culture

How fun the activities were!

landscape and language

I liked the group's atmosphere and I liked the meetings

Meet new people

Schwetzingen garden& castle getting in contact with all the people (also the teachers) and get to know them better

the visit in Heidelberg

I liked the group's atmosphere and the attractions we visited

The sense of collaboration that was immediatly built up expecially with some members of the group

The group work that we did on sunday for the following day

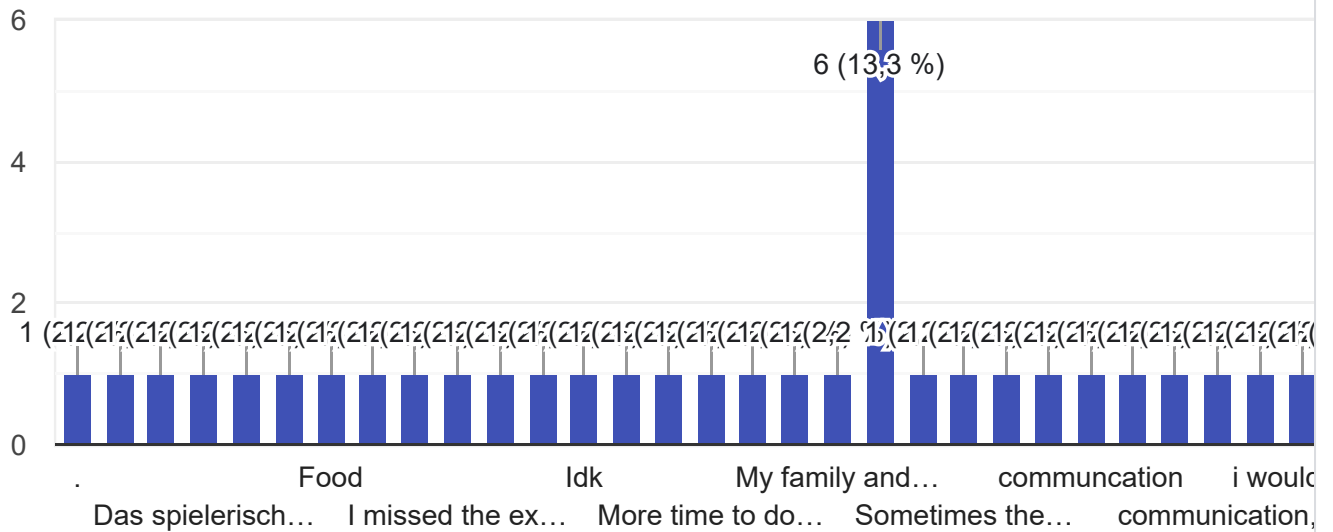

the group community

to find new friends

What I missed:

No

nothing

Attend a lesson in your school!

I think it was pretty good

A little bit of time for more visits around the cities better communication, better organization

better communication

projects with other countries

Come Back to Kalamata

more diversity in activities (not only castles)

Cooking special food all together

Nothing

To stay together more often After the school

Visiting castles is good, but I think that's not too good to get like a two our tour one day and the next 2 days you'll see 2 other castles.

And maybe plan one day completely free so the host family can do something with their host student.

more activities

More time :)

to continue them. !!!!!

better communication

Making more friends.

None

England

more interesting activities

projects with other countries too.

Participate during a lesson.

Shorter trips and maybe more different things; not a Programm which is limited to one topic

Do more stuff in the afternoon

more diversity in activities (not only castles)

cooking

none

More european countries should be involved in the same project.

maybe more mixing of the groups, but nothing impeticular

it should be longer

a better Organization, better communication, better learning games
