

UMBERTO LOMBARDI

Dear friends,

my names is Umberto and because of the coronavirus, I am forced to stay at home.

I believe that coronavirus is a serious virus and we can defeat it by staying at home and respecting the rules.

I am getting bored a bit, but the teachers are keeping us company during the online lessons.

I hope everything will end soon to be able to return to play in the open air.

regards,

Umberto