

Examples of folk costumes in Moravia region

Differences that can be spot:

- In Haná region (around Olomouc) folk costume demonstrates fruitful and rich region. (See typical rich sleeves and collars.)
- For Lower Silesia is usually white colour, decorated scarf, bow and black headscarf.
- For industrial region of Ostrava, there are not known folk costumes. Instead of that, a man were wearing ceremonial mining uniform.
- Finally Wallachian region is typical by blueprinting apron and waistcoat.

Region Haná

Lower Silesia

Ostrava

Walachian region

