

PORTUGAL

Portugal is a nice country located in Southern Europe, on the Iberian Peninsula. The Algarve region in the South and the capital city, Lisbon, are the most popular places.

One typical food from Portugal is a specific type of cheese called "Queijo da Serra". It is also a popular dish the one called "Bacallau à Brás", which is mainly made of cod; in fact, the Portuguese are known as "The kings of cod". The wine is quite famous too; there is even a festivity dedicated to it: "Fiesta del vino de Madeira"

In terms of sports, the most important one is football. Golf is very well-known as well; golfers can choose from more than forty high-level sites. Portugal has a great tradition in athletics and it is the birthplace of legends such as Rosa Mota and Carlos Lopes.

I personally think that Portugal is a beautiful place to visit, with fascinating beaches, monuments and customs. I have never been there, I have only seen it in photos but it is said that Portugal attracts many tourists and I would like to visit it one day.
