

RESUMEN DE INFORMACIÓN BÁSICA DE SEVILLA

Seville is the capital of Andalusia, and the largest capital of the autonomous community. This has around 689,434 inhabitants. The city has an extension of 4905.04 million square km.

Its old town is the largest in Spain and one of the three largest in Europe along with those of Venice and Genoa, with 3.94 square kilometers, and its historic center, one of the largest in Spain.

Its historical and monumental heritage and its diverse scenic and cultural spaces make it a host city for national and international tourism, in fact it is the third most visited capital in Spain.
