

PUERTAS BAELO CLAUDIA

1. Puerta Este o Puerta de Carteia (Carteia's Door).

The entry to Baelo Claudia from the East. It forms a set of 12m of width. This one composed by two rectangular towers of 6, 50 m. Of length for 4,50m of width they flank a passage of 3, 15 m. His towers, of the type I, present the typical heel of approximately 2 m. For the interior of the wall each of them shelters a room of 4x2 m. To that one accedes for a door of 1 m. Of width. It was giving step to one of the principal artery of the city, the decumanus maximus.

2. Puerta de Gades (Gade's Door).

The entry to Baelo Claudia from the West. It's composed by two towers(4,50 m of width each one) that flank the passage (3,10 m.), and the set reaches 12 m of monumental character. The interior of each tower also is hollow, originating a limited room of 5x2 m, to that one accedes for a narrow door.

