Sightseeing Matera

Acting classes

Sightseeing

Dancing course

The visit in the teatre

the visit to one of the towns

Flasjmob and traditional dances

The trips to Lecce and Arberobello.

I loved participating in the flash mob and i really enjoyed that i got to visit your school and meet the italian students

Visiting Lecce & Alberobello

The traditional dances that we learned in school.

I enjoyed when we learned traditional dances and the first flash mob

there were only two activities and none seemed interesting to me

The flash mob in the center of the city

Going to other places

Meeting people of other cultures and visit the city with them, and also all the good time I've had with my friends

The theatre activity

Traditional dances

The visit in the other towns and of course the theatrical games

Spending time with different students

the greece's dance

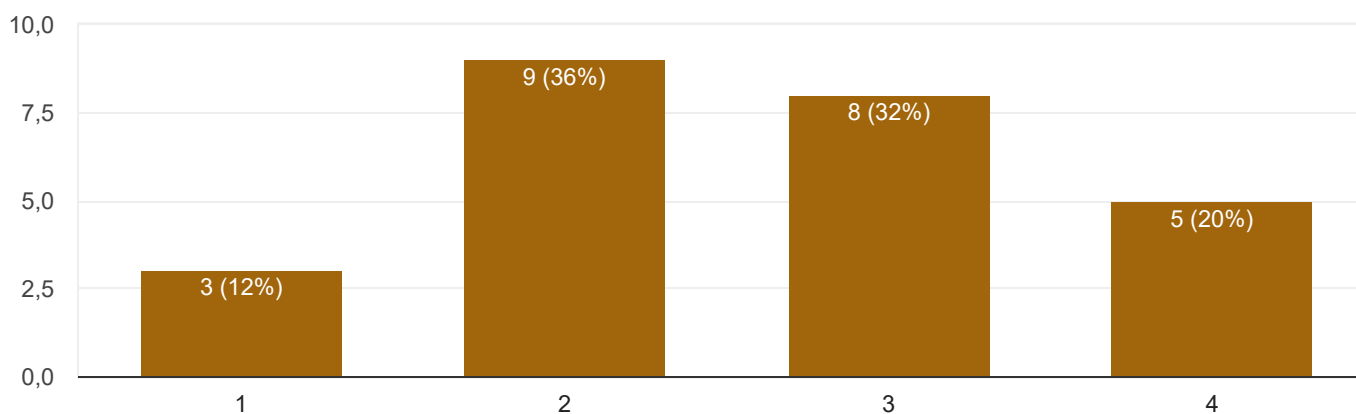

The flashmobs

Bullying plays

Yes

Yes

Yes, exchanges are always great opportunities to see new places like beautiful city like Bari.

Yes, It's very fun

Yess

Yes learn cultures and different people

yes

Yes! It is a chance to broaden your mind, learn about different cultures, communicate with other people and make unforgettable memories!

Of course! It's an experience of a lifetime... You learn a lot throughout this journey!

Yes of course because we learned so much from this program and we made unforgettable memories.

Yes! It is an experience of a life time and you get to know the culture of a place from the inside.

yes, although it is not well coordinated, the possibility that the students are in another country and know that country is positive

Yes because you have the opportunity to meet new people and cultures

Yes because your learn all different cultures

I would definitely recommend participating in an international project like this because it's a unique opportunity to learn, a unique experience that you won't have many times, and all the good time with your friends and the new people you will meet is an incredible feeling. The feeling of freedom and being with all the people, learning and also improving o your English at the same time is unbelievable

Yes but with better organization and mire activities which should include the participation of all members and not just a few. I think the most importante is to all countries gather together. But traveling and meeting people is amazing so i for sure recommend it.

Yes because you make good friends and you learn a lot of things

Yes because it connects you with people and other countries.

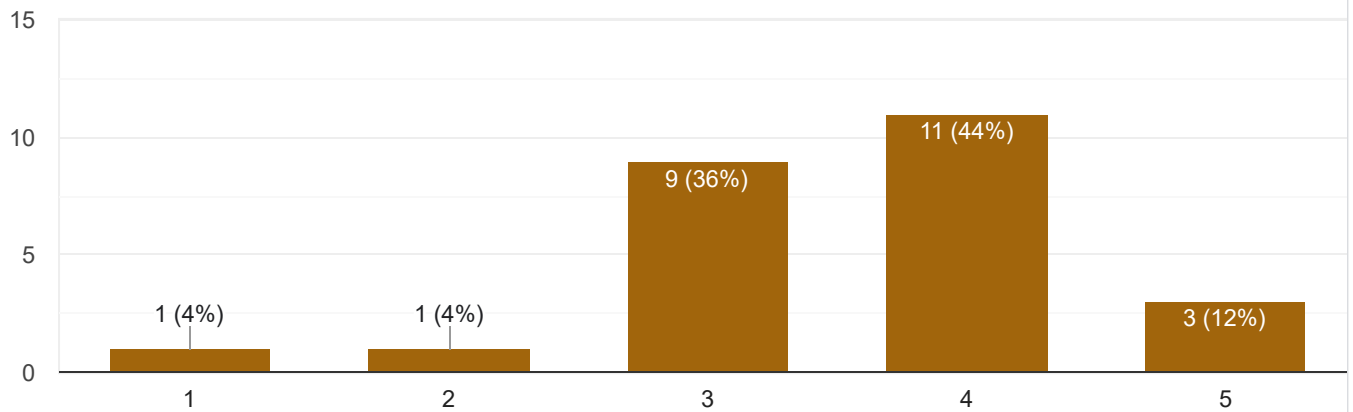

Yes, its a very enjoyable experience in which we learnt a lot

Yes , of course since the experience is incredible , you can enjoy a lot of and learnt thinks that yo don't know before about cultures, language...

Trip to Matera, delicious panzzerottis and wonderful views

The city

Beautiful city

students' cooperation

The dance in the street

the mix of cultures and languages

The place. Bari is an amazing citu

The flash mob in Piazza Mercantile

Your city is breathtaking! i'd love to visit it again.. From people's open heart to every attraction i adored it!

Beautiful landscapes

The theatre of Petruzzelli.

Personally one thing I'll remember is the good people that we met and the hospitality of everyone even on the streets. I loved that I got to see friends from a previous Erasmus and got to know Bari together. I would definitely go again!

the relationships that exist between students and the interest in discovering their different cultures

The interaction with the other kids and the trips to different cities around Bari

Been with my friends

The feeling of happiness and freedom with my friends at the same time I'm learning. Both things don't have to be separated

The joy of meeting new people and having a trip with my friends.

The people

The places that we visited and the drama workshop

Having dinner with my friends

Meet wiht the people of other countries
