

Canva- workshops for the participants of the project

In February 2020, participants of our projects were invited for „Canva workshops”. The aim was to show them the possibilities this website gives them and teach them how to use it. Our students were eager to learn new ways of making postcards, invitations, posters and many other.

They can use the knowledge to advertise their international cook book! And we are sure they will 😊

