I am not an Art teacher so I have some difficulties in finding time for classes with children. fortunately my colleagues have helped me. All other difficulties were connected to my lack of experience in making project. I am happy to say that administrator of the project were very helpful and friendly.

Some paintings were difficult for preschoolers so we had to find ways to make them easier.

I feel very happy. my pupils learned a lot and created beautiful pictures.

I feel very pleased and content with the collaboration and the impact the project had in my students life in school and the school community. I made new friends and learned a lot from many fellow teachers. I developed my creativity as a teacher and I met new aspects of the personality of my students.

I feel very grateful with all partners and their contributions. It really was a wonderful cooperative project, with ideas from everyone of the partners:)
