

The background features a collection of abstract, hand-drawn elements. There are large, soft-edged shapes in muted green, dusty rose, and terracotta. A prominent terracotta ring is positioned in the upper right. A dark brown cross is drawn on a light brown textured area in the top right and another on a larger light brown shape in the bottom left. A green fern frond is placed in the top center and another in the bottom right. A cluster of orange dashed lines is located in the top left and bottom right. The overall style is bohemian and artistic.
