15. What do you think about the places you have visited so far in 5 days? Are they similar to your country or not?

6 yanıt

Definetely

Each country has it's own history. In terms of learning about each other it is very important to visit places of national and cultural heritage to understand each other better. The places we have seen are much older and had a different impact on national history than those our guests have visited during their stay in Croatia. But what they do have in common is the path and ideas they left behind.

Veery interesting historical places.

Yes, very similar

Yes, for some aspects but Greece remains unique in its history and richness

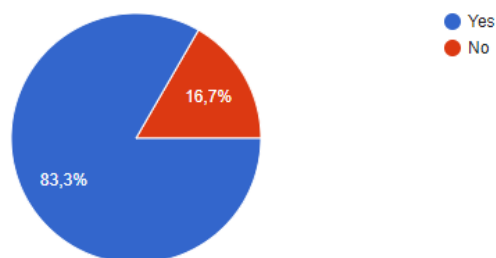

Thanks for possibility to see and visit so deeply ancient places, to find out their history and feel the atmosphere. Our country doesnt get so ancient and magnificent culture.
