Sergio Ramos

- is a Spanish professional footballer who plays for and captains both Real Madrid and the Spanish national team as a centre back. He has also played as a right back. Ramos is widely regarded as one of the best defenders of his generation, and has also received praise for his passing and goalscoring capabilities.

representative of the Spanish national team

- Winner of the European Championships 2008 in Austria and Switzerland, European Championships 2012 in Poland and Ukraine and World Championships 2010 in South Africa.
- On 26 March 2005, in a 3–0 friendly win over China in Salamanca, he first appeared for the senior side at only 18 years and 361 days of age, making him the youngest player to play for the national team in the last 55 years

Club career

- Sevilla- Sergio started with big football in Seville, where he played for the B-Team from the age of seventeen. A year later, he got into the premier league team, where his performances attracted the attention of large clubs, especially the Real Madrid in Madrid.

Club career

- Real Madrid-From the beginning, Sergio appeared to be a very talented defender who did not lack diligence and diligence. Thanks to that, he got into the Spanish national team and also played at the 2006 World Cup in Germany, where he did not shine, but he clearly indicated his possibilities. From that moment on, a world-class player began to grow from him. They worked very well with him in the club and the coaches increasingly counted on him on the right side of the royal club's defense.
