

Special Festivity in Greece: The carnival

The carnival is called “Apokries” in Greece and it takes place in late winter over a three- weeks period and dancing before Lent Monday. The exact dates of the Carnival vary, depending on Easter. Actually the Carnival finishes 7 weeks before Easter.

Important carnival Parades take place in Patras, Xanthi, Corfu island and Rethymno with wonderful floats.

Athina Tsorou