November 28 – December 4, 2021 Poland - Poznan

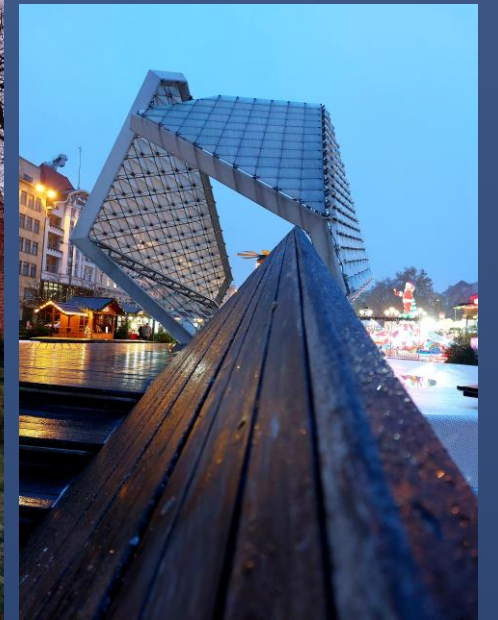

Day 1

- We arrived around 5 pm to hotel Lechnicka.
- After dinner we went outside just to walk, because the way here was uncomfortable

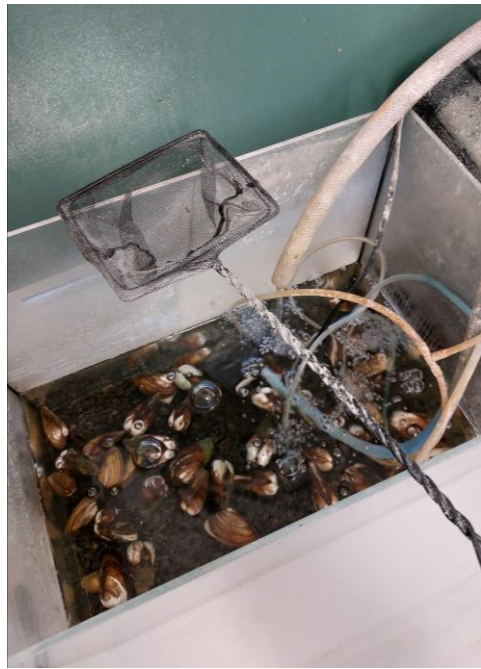

Day 2

- After breakfast we went to local school in Poznań to get to know better with other students and to explore school.
- Then we went to Plaza tram station that we could get to square where we completed some tasks and we visited local Christmas markets in Poznań. We arrived at the hotel tired, but after dinner we went to swimming pool with Spanish students, We played Czech and Spanish games, so we taught and learned new pool games.

Day 3

- Early in the morning we traveled to Gniezno Christmas balls factory. We went through the whole process of making Christmas balls from the start till the end + decoration process.
- We could buy some of them in the store and we could make our own Christmas balls.
- We traveled back to Poznań university to learn about saving our planet and how we could help about it, we saw experiments and process of making energy better for our environment and from easier, recycled and more available ingredients. To be honest, presentations like from university professor are useful and arent boring. We had lunch break at canteen and then visitation of Park with light statues. In the evening we had fun in swimming pool with italian and Spanish students.

Day 4

- In the morning we could sleep longer, because we went to school at 9am. We heard presentations from Spanish and Italian students, it was pretty good like our presentation, we learned more things about their schools and town. We traveled to center to learn how to make St Martin's Croissant and we got the certification, the croissant guy maker was funny and skillful. On the lunch we tried Polish soup. After lunch break in center we went to modern history museum of Poznań, afterwards we visited Cathedral, then we traveled to big shopping mall with Polish students. After dinner in the hotel we went out with Polish girls, we had a lot of fun and learned new Polish words. Late night we played UNO with Spanish students.

Day 5

- Again early in the morning on our way to Toruń
- we stopped at third oldest church in Europe. When we arrived to Toruń first we visited gingerbread factory afterwards we stopped at Planetarium.
- Last spot in Toruń were Christmas markets.
