

Sights

Author: Lotta, Source: own

Maschsee:

- is a lake about 1,6 Mio. m³
- you can go for a beautiful walk or with a pedal-boat
- once a year the Maschsee-Party is celebrated with many food trucks and drinks
- there are many cafes and several rowing schools

Nanas:

- built by Niki de Saint Phalle a french artist
- their names are Shoppe, Caroline and Charlotte
- they are placed at the Leinepromenade in the old town

Author: JuergenG,
Source: commons.wikimedia

Author: Lotta, Source: own

New Town Hall:

- built from 1901-1913
- placed in the 10 hectare big Maschseepark
- elevator to the town hall dome:
- very special
- vertically and then transported upwards at an angle of 17 degrees

Opera house:

- was opened in 1852 as a royal court theatre
- program: ballet, opera and concerts
- in middle of the city

Author: Lotta, Source: own

Author: Lotta, Source: own

Eilenriede:

- the city forest
- one of the biggest city forests in Europe (640 hectare)
- the forest has been in municipal ownership for over 600 years

Author: Pedelects at Wikivoyage shared Wikimedia.commons

Oldtown:

- beautiful old houses
- many cafes and little shops

Kröpcke:

- main meeting point in Hanover
- crossing of main shopping streets
- named after the famous cafe house

Author: Martina Nolte commons.wikimedia