

Oradea

Oradea is the capital city of Bihor Country and Crișana region, it is located on the banks of Crișul Repede River, in the West of Romania.

Oradea's architecture is a mix of many Baroque buildings and rich collections of Art Nouveau architecture. The town's Plaza has a wide variety of impressive buildings such as my High School and the Black Hawk Passage, and let's not forget about the Oradea Fortress.

The people of this town are mostly kind, respectful and sociable. A funny thing is that we are labeled as slow or lazy by other people from Romania but, I think we just do things at our own pace. :)

Oradea's pedestrian center with lots of restaurants, bars and clubs.

The Greek -Catholic High School "Iuliu Maniu".
