It is a pity that not all the colleagues could join in.

Continental choice was poor, English breakfast not the best.

English breakfast was great! Variety of bread and always fresh fruits...

a bit expensive

Disappointing, too crowded and too noisy... Very American, and expensive! We could hardly speak to each other

No good idea for a farewell dinner. Too loud, too expensive and people were missing.

Food was good, but too expensive! Music was too loud..

Comment: (3 responses)

Interesting for me but there was à lot to understand and with thé scottish accent, that was difficult for thé students, i started translating, but there was too much to do. Thé effects are good though

We are too old for this!

More funny than scary...

Trip : National Museum of Scotland (10 responses)

Comment: (3 responses)

It is a pity the "education" bit was hard to find. Very heclectic.

No guided tour, but VERY interesting, very good museum

I was in the National Galery instead and it was great!

Activity: Our Futuristic School (Wednesday) (10 responses)

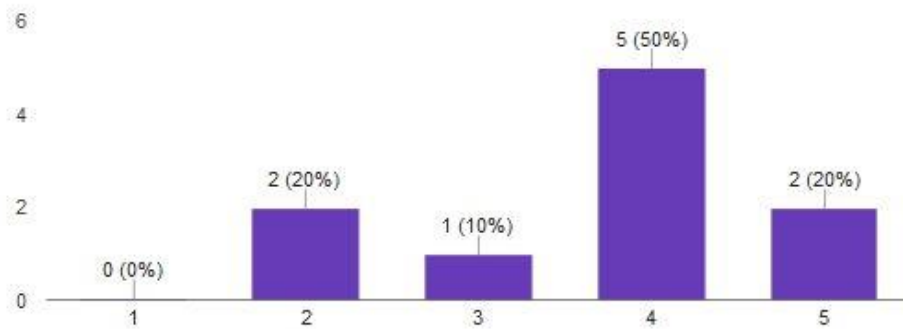

Comment: (3 responses)

The idea was very interesting. I would have liked the budget to be more realistic, so that the students understand you can't hire Andy Murray as a coach !

The instruction were rather unrealistic. The students imagined à Utopian school rather.

Nice and (more or less) creative and imaginative ideas - but what about realistic propositions?

Activity: Educational Game Board (Wednesday & Friday) (10 responses)

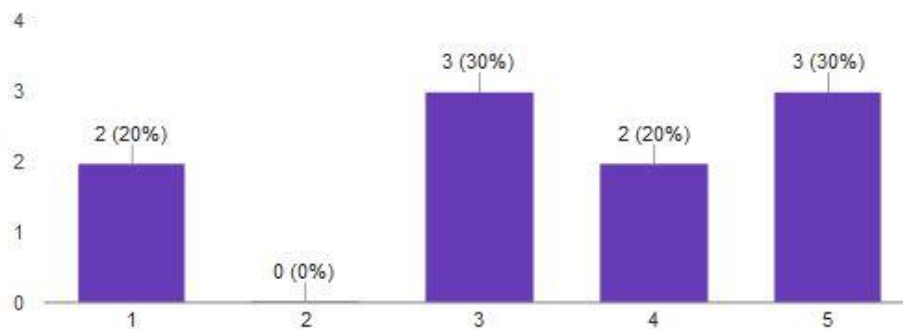

Comment: (3 responses)

I would have preferred a digital version of it do as to bring back some educational matériel to school, students have to make choices and this game could have been integrated in the sustainability part of our project. However i like the idea of the game of life

Why did we do it?

The task wasn't clear at the beginning...

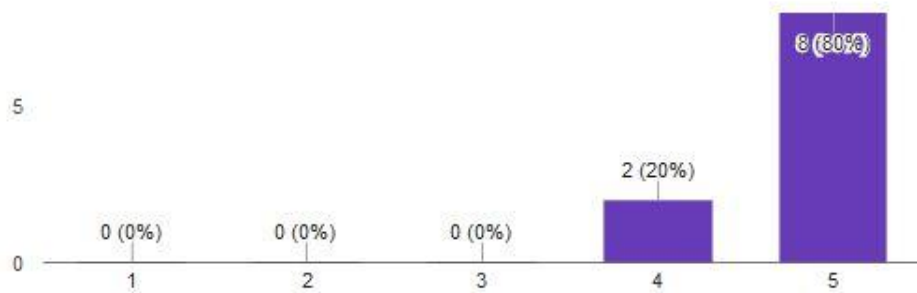

School : Lunch at the school canteen (Wednesday) (10 responses)

Trip: Surgeons Hall (Thursday) (10 responses)

I enjoyed thé workshops and présentations but thé rest of thé muséum is more for spécialistes and to me , it was kind of gory .

Ok, nice for the students, but Edinburgh has so much more to give than dungeons and vaults and pathology!

Great workshops and interesting exhibition...

Overall evaluation: Atmosphere (10 responses)

Comment: (2 responses)

The good working atmosphere is sometimes spoilt by communication problems, we should talk more very good

For future visits : Positives to keep (4 responses)

Friendly atmosphere
Library and the common room - good choice for meeting pupils
Interesting activities

Collaboration , learning from one another, helping each other.

the multicultural party, the beds in the hotel

- The appropriate balance of work and free-time
- The great mixture of restaurants

For future visits : Aspects to improve on (3 responses)

Not being afraid to ask for help, sticking to the topic, and instructions given, being more focused on the students activities -supervising and helping them at school -than on personal matters.

more information about the place, more/better the integration of the work done before, clearer outcomes of the meeting

- I would expect more appreciation by the headteacher
- One or two more activities dealing with the topic
