

Pavel Nedved

Pavel Nedved is a former Czech footballer. He was born in 1972 on August 30. Ever since birth, the natural talent in playing football has been visible. He started playing at the Victoria Plzeň Club, followed by a transfer to the Sparta Prague Club. This is where his journey to the football world began. In 2003 he was named Europe's best player. His greatest personal achievement is winning the gold ball and he was awarded the Medal of Merit in 2015 on October 28. At 33 years old, backman Pavel Nedved ended his career in a national team jersey against Serbia in Uherským Brodem. He managed to join Italy's most famous club Juventus Turin. To this day, he remains at this club as vice president. He and his wife have a son, Pavel and a daughter Ivana who still live in Italy La Maddalena.