

FAMILIES SURVEY RESULTS

According to what families have answered in this survey, we can say that:

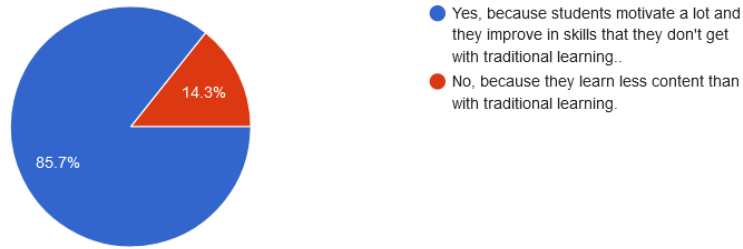

42.9% of families like eTwinning projects because their sons/daughters are motivated and 57.1% of families love eTwinning projects because their sons/daughters, apart from being motivated they have improved their key competences and skills as well.

35.7% of families think that working collaboratively with students from other countries is something positive for their children and 64.3% think that it is very positive.

3. Do you think project-based learning is better than traditional learning?

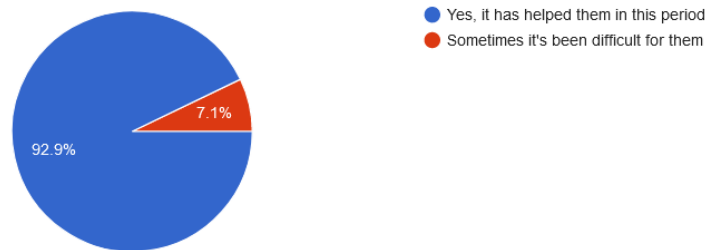

14 responses

85.7% of families think that project based learning is better than traditional learning because students get more motivated and they improve their skills however 14.3% of families think that students learn less contents through project based learning.

4. Do you think this project has helped them to improve the digital competence?

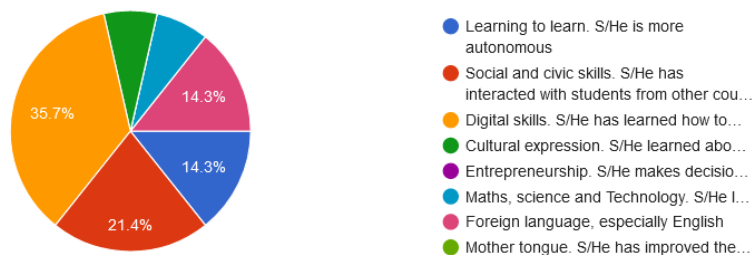

14 responses

92.9% of families think that this project has helped students improve their digital competence, however, 7.1% of families think that it has been difficult for them.

5. Which competencies do you find your children improved with this project?

14 responses

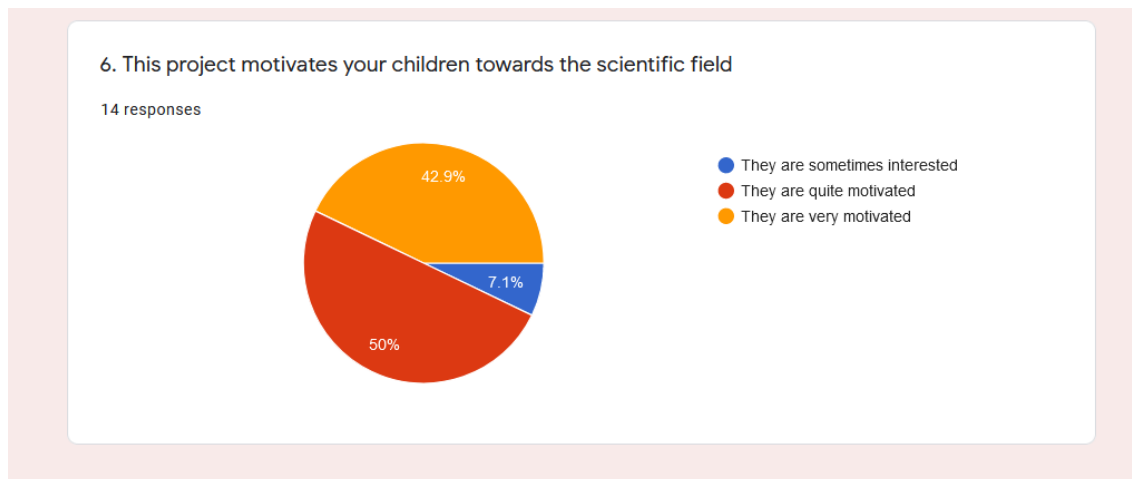

35.7% of families think that thanks to this project children have improved digital skills.

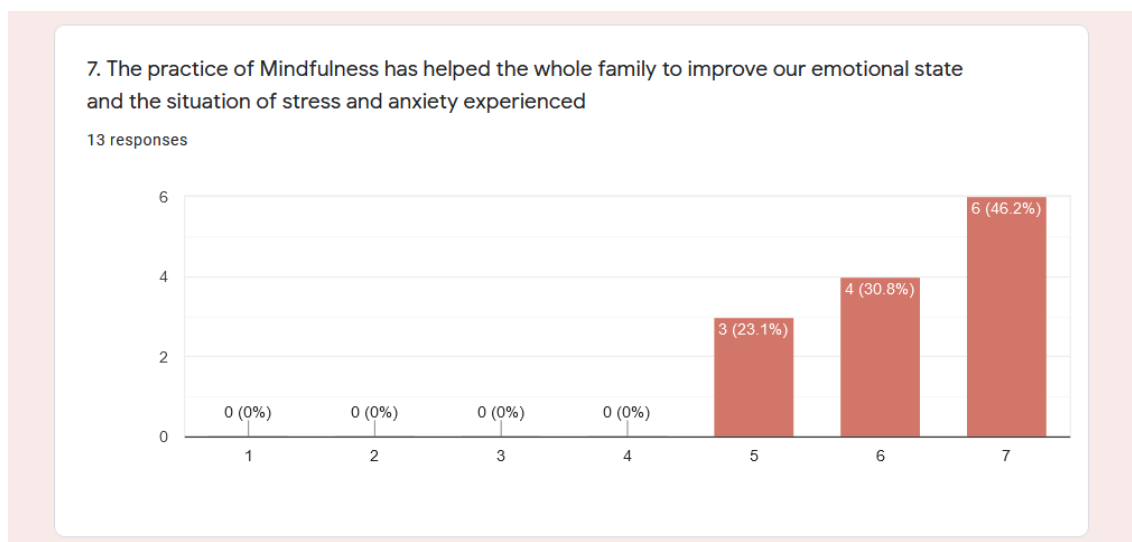

21% of families think that they have improved social and civic skills.

14.3% of families think that they are more autonomous.

14.3% of families think that they are more entrepreneur.

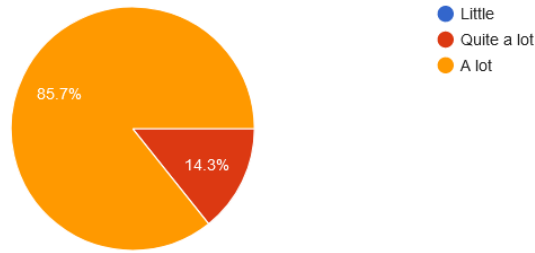

42.9% of families think that this project helps children be very motivated towards the scientific field and 50% of families think that it helps them be quite motivated towards the scientific field however, 7.1% of families think that children have been sometimes interested on the scientific field.

46.2% of families think that practicing mindfulness has helped a lot the whole family improve their emotional state and the situation of stress and anxiety experienced, 30.8% of them think that it has helped quite a lot and 23.1% of families think that it has helped enough.

8. Has your children gained knowledge of the problem about the pollution and plastics which damage the oceans and the Marine Life ?

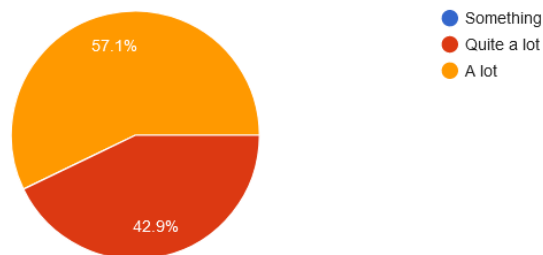

14 responses

85.7% of families think that children have gained a lot of knowledge of the problem about pollution and plastics which damage the oceans and the marine life and 14.3% of families think that they have learnt quite a lot about this topic.

9.-Do you think your children know about the importance of Ocean and Marine Life?

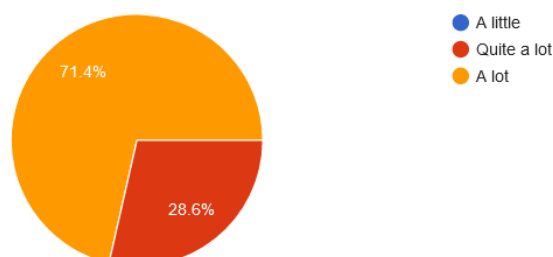

14 responses

57.1% of families think that children know a lot about the importance of oceans and marine life and 42.9% of families think that they have learnt quite a lot about this topic.

10.- Do you think your children know how to take care of them?

14 responses

71.4% of families think that children know a lot about how to take care of the oceans and 28.6% of families think that they know quite a lot.