

End of book “Chrysanthemum”

Mrs. Twinkle assigned roles for the musical. Victoria was chosen as a ruby red rose. Rita was chosen as a small and delicate dandelion. Jo was chosen as a beautiful pink tulip. And, at last, Chrysanthemum was chosen as the Fairy, which gave blessings to all the flowers. Everyone, except Chrysanthemum, was disappointed because they wanted to be Fairy, as it was the main role in the musical.

When the play started, all of Chrysanthemum’s classmates were charmed by her performance. The way she sang and carried out the role of the Fairy made everyone think she was an actual fairy.

At the end of the musical, Mrs. Twinkle congratulated Chrysanthemum on her beautiful rehearsal. Jo, Rita and Victoria soon came and felicitated her too. They also apologized for the mean things they said in the past and asked for forgiveness. All her classmates felt bad for saying those things and laughing at her.

Chrysanthemum chose to forgive her schoolmates and they all decided to never make fun of someone just because they are different. Mrs. Twinkle felt very relieved that they made up and congratulated everyone on their wonderful performance.

When she came home, Chrysanthemum’s parents asked how her day was. “It was wonderful!”, she said. “I made friends with everyone and we had loads of fun! I got the main role in the school musical and everyone felicitated me on my performance!”. Her parents were extremely happy that their daughter managed to make new friends and had fun. “I can’t wait for tomorrow!” Chrysanthemum said.

by Daria Munteanu